

Prince Edward Island Crafts Council - JURY APPLICATION FORM

Individual, Family and Business Professional Memberships, must be juried to become a member of the PEICC. Members may be required to re-jury if payment of Active Membership fee is not received within a 12-month period after having work successfully meet Standards Guidelines, if there is a 12-month lapse in Active Membership or if retailing privileges (Council-sponsored fairs) in a particular medium are not exercised within any 24-month period.

The Standards Committee meets twice a year - dates and times to be announced. Decisions are based on the PEICC Standards Guidelines. The Committee indicates its decision in writing approximately 2 weeks after the submissions deadline. Should your work meet the Standards Guidelines you will be invited to become a Professional Member of the Council. Applicants must submit 3 pieces in any one medium to the Standards Committee. All work submitted must be made by the Applicant, must have been produced within the last 12 months and must be representative of the work you intend to sell at Council sponsored fairs/events.
